“Children, Equity, Innovation and the Post-2015 Development Agenda”

Mr. Anthony Lake, Executive Director of UNICEF
Christopher Fabian and Erica Kochi, Innovation Advisors to the Executive Director of UNICEF

Date: Tuesday, October 8th 2013

Time: 1.15 pm - 2.30 pm

Venue: Labouisse Hall, UNICEF House (B1) – 3 UN Plaza, NY NY 10017 (44th street between 1st and 2nd avenues)

Anthony Lake became the sixth Executive Director of the United Nations Children's Fund on 1 May 2010, bringing to the position more than 45 years of public service. Mr. Lake has worked at the most senior levels of the US government, including as National Security Adviser (1993-1997) to President Clinton. He also served as the U.S. President's Special Envoy in Ethiopia, Eritrea, and Haiti.

At this event, Mr Anthony Lake will talk about the importance of placing children, equity and innovations at the centre of the post-2015 development agenda. Mr Christopher Fabian and Ms. Erica Kochi, Innovation Advisors to the Executive Director, will join him in discussing how innovations are helping the United Nations and its partners advance their work in improving the lives of children around the world.

From using simple mobile technology to strengthen life-saving services in the last mile, to texting with hundreds of thousands of children about the challenges that face them on a daily basis, UNICEF is partnering with the private sector, academia and other development partners to create and guide approaches that are transformative, at scale, for the world's most vulnerable children.
